Dear Parent,

Thank you for considering Rutgers, the State University of New Jersey for your child's education. We are the eighth oldest institution of higher learning in the United States and among the nine original colonial colleges which include Harvard, Yale, Princeton, Columbia, Brown, Dartmouth, University of Pennsylvania, and William and Mary. We offer more than 100 fields of study on the undergraduate and graduate levels. As a member of the Association of American Universities (an organization of the 63 leading research institutions in North America) we rank within the top 35 public institutions. Of the more than 4,200 institutions in the United States, we are in the top 1% because of our commitment to the highest standards of research, teaching, and service to our state, country, and world.

Our programs are internationally recognized. The London Financial Times named our executive master of business administration program number two in the world for career progress. Our philosophy graduate program was named number two in the English-speaking world by Philosophical Gourmet Report. Small Times magazine ranked Rutgers' nanotechnology program as number 11 in the world and our Institute for Marine and Coastal Sciences is among the top 15 ocean science institutes in North America.

Undergraduate programs ranked in the top 20 nationwide:
Animal Sciences
Business
English Literature
Environmental Sciences
Global Affairs
Pharmaceutical Sciences
Philosophy
Physics

Graduate programs ranked in the top 10 nationwide:
Criminology
Digital Librarianship
Discrete Mathematics and Combinatonics
Library Information Systems
Planning and Public Policy
Printmaking
Public Affairs Information and Technology Management
Public Management Administration

Above all, your child will feel welcomed and comfortable here. For example, The Center for International Services on our New Brunswick campus conducts a comprehensive 6-day orientation program for new international students. Your child will also be assigned a personal international student advisor to assist throughout the year. We also sponsor a community-based International Friendship Program which gives students, university, and community residents the opportunity to get to know each other along with English conversation groups.

Rutgers takes public safety very seriously and is committed to ensuring a safe environment for everyone on all of its campuses. The Rutgers University Police Department (RUPD) operates 24 hours a day, 365 days a year, to provide the university community with a full range of police and security services.
